

FUNDING ALERT

*A Service of the Office of the Chief Financial Officer
Office of Grants Management and Development
Internet Address: www.dccfo.com*

Volume 2, Issue 30

August 2, 1999

FEDERAL FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

Establish/Operate Health Promotion and Disease Prevention Initiative Program for African Americans. The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention announces funds to award one cooperative agreement to a National or Regional Minority entity. The organization will establish or operate a health program unit, a speaker's bureau and a National Health Network. Funding is $100,000 a year for a five year period. Deadline is September 7. For additional information contact Yvonne Lewis at (404) 639-7220 or on the internet at www.cdc.gov.

Field-Initiated Research and Evaluation Program. The U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention announces funds for public and private agencies and individuals to conduct research and evaluation projects. The projects are in four areas: Native American juvenile justice and delinquency prevention; evaluation of juvenile justice programs for female juvenile offenders; juvenile justice system operations, sanctions and treatments; and general research designed to inform and enhance the field of juvenile justice and delinquency prevention. Awards amounts range from $200,000 - $300,000. Three awards in each area. Deadline is September 10. For additional information contact Charlotte Kerr, at (202) 307-5929 or on the internet at www.ojjdp.ncjrs.org/grants/about.html#kit.

Rehabilitation Grants. The U.S. Department of Education announces funding under various priorities:

- Assist State Vocational Agencies in carrying out their Comprehensive System of Personnel Development plans.
- Rehabilitation Long-Term Training related to individuals who are deaf or hard of hearing and low functioning.
- Support Training Centers
- Support Advanced Degree Programs

The awards are for five years and average around $100,000 per year. The deadlines for each of these applications is September 17. Eligible applicants vary but primarily are States, public or nonprofit agencies and organizations including institutions of higher education. For additional information call 1-877-433-7827 or on the internet at www.ed.gov/pubs/edpubs.html.

Educational Programs in Occupational Safety and Health To Prepare Health Services Researchers. The U. S. Department of Health and Human Services, Centers for Disease Control announces $500,000 in funds to award three grants. Eligible applicants are any public or private educational and training agency or institutions that have demonstrated competency in this area. Deadline is November 30. For further information contact Bernadine Kuchinski at (404) 639-3342. For an application call 1-888-472-6874 or on the internet at www.cdc.gov.

Program Announcement 00012.

FUNDING ALERT

DISTRICT FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner (S.A.N.E.)

Program. The Office of Grants Management and Development announces funds to award one grant for $200,000 to a hospital that has worked in conjunction with the D.C. Rape Crisis Center. The purpose of the grant is to reduce crime and improve public safety. The deadline is August 23 at 6:00 p.m

Crime Victims Assistance Grants. The Office of Grants Management and Development announces funds to support programs that enhance Crime Victim Services in the District of Columbia. There are four categories of funding opportunities. Applicants may submit proposals in each category. Funding priorities are programs that deal with: Victims of Child Abuse, Victims of Sexual Abuse, Victims of Domestic Violence and Previously Under Served Priority Areas. $865,450 is available to fund applications under this solicitation. Deadline is August 26 at 6:00 p.m. Eligible applicants are nonprofit organizations and non-federal government agencies.

Crime Prevention for Disabled Persons.

The Office of Grants Management and Development announces funds for one award at $200,000 which focuses on crime prevention for disabled persons. The goal of the grant is to provide personal safety training to adults with disabilities (both physical and developmental), their caregivers and provide training to police officers on how to communicate and interact with persons with disabilities. Deadline is August 12 at 6:00 p.m

Office on Aging, Fiscal Year 2000 Grant. The DC Office on Aging is soliciting applications to provide a full array of services and activities to enhance the overall health and well being of the senior population, with particular emphasis on the low-income minority elderly. Deadline is August 24.

Applications for the District grants listed above may be obtained from OGMD at 717 14th Street, NW, Suite 1200 or on the internet at www.dccfo.com under grants. For additional information, please call OGMD at 202-727-6537.

Drug Prevention and Children-At-Risk Fund.

The D.C. Department of Recreation and Parks (DCRP) is seeking applications from non-profit organizations that operate programs that focus on promoting the positive self-worth of youth under 18 and have demonstrable experience in working with at-risk youth. The maximum award is $10,000 for an individual program and $25,000 for a collaborative effort of two or more organizations. Deadline is September 15. Applications can be obtained by calling DCRP at (202) 673-2088.

PRIVATE FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

Prince Charitable Trust. The Health, Social Services and Education concept proposals needs to be in by September 1. Initial approach is a 3-5 page proposal and cover letter. The Trust will provide funds for general/operating support, continuing support, capital campaigns, program development, seed money, technical assistance and program-related investment/loans. Average grant ranges from $5,000-$25,000. Grants only given to local groups. For additional information Contact Tracey Shafroth, at (312) 454-9130.

Hattie M. Strong Foundation. The Foundation's grant program focuses primarily on educational programs for the disadvantaged in the Washington, DC area, including remedial and enrichment programs, literacy for at-risk youth and adults, tutoring, basic skills training, and academic mentoring. Next deadline October 15. Grants normally are under $10,000. For additional information contact Judith B. Cyphers at (202) 331-1619.